Release and Waiver

In consideration of being permitted in Mercy Home's 2012 training programs, the Mercy Home Marathon Team and the 2012 Bank of America Chicago Marathon ("the Events"), I do hereby, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators, successors, assigns and personal representatives, waive and release any and all rights, claims and causes of action I have or may have against: Bank of America N.A. and its affiliates, Chicago Event Management Inc., the City of Chicago, the Chicago Park District, all governmental bodies or districts representing the area(s) in which the race is held, the Bank of America Chicago Marathon, Mercy Home for Boys & Girls, and their affiliates, agents, employees, officers, representatives, directors, successors, and assigns of each of the foregoing, and all other persons connected with this program, that may arise as a result of my participation in any of the Events and any pre- and post-race activities. I further grant full permission to any and all of the foregoing to use and reproduce my image or likeness by any audio and/or visual recording technique (including electronic/digital) now in existence or hereafter invented, for any legitimate purpose, including commercial sales and marketing purposes. I am physically fit and my physical fitness has been verified by a licensed medical doctor and I am sufficiently trained to participate in the Events and recognize the risks involved, and intend by this release to assume full responsibility for anything that might happen to me.
