Fr. Scott's Corner

Though Christmas Day is past us, as Catholics we know that the holiday season continues with the celebration of the Feast of the Epiphany on January 4. On this special day, we acknowledge the revelation that Jesus was born as the Son of God.

We can learn more about this revelation through the gospel of the three wise men who traveled to visit Jesus after his birth. They embarked on a journey of faith, following the star of Bethlehem until they reached Jesus's manger. The gifts they brought along symbolized their revelation of his divinity: gold, which marked Jesus as a king; frankincense, which was used in worship and symbolized the holiness of Jesus; and myrrh, a perfume used for embalming, which symbolized that Christ would one day die for our sins.

Though the story of the three wise men has become an important part of the Christmas season, it is one that we can take along with us into the new year. The start of a new year is a time for rejuvenation. It is time when we can make our own revelations. And, as the wise men did so many years ago, we can continue our own journey of faith throughout 2026. The wise men had a revelation that the Son of God was coming, and they were not afraid to follow their hearts. I hope you will have the courage to do the same.

When we consider the name, "epiphany" means a sudden revelation. What could be more appropriate than the understanding that God came to us in human form through his son Jesus? This is something that changes each of us forever. It changes the world forever. It is why we are able to find hope, love, peace, and joy all year long. Knowing that God came to earth for our sakes, not his own, should fill us with a sense of amazement.

That is why it is so appropriate for us to celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord this January. The revelation of God's saving action is not just a past event to remember. Instead, it is a present and ongoing reality—something we can celebrate each and every day. We know that God's plan always included salvation for us. This is an incredible and startling revelation. The life of the Church and every Christian is also an epiphany—a way to see the saving Lord in our everyday lives.

This January, as you make New Year's resolutions, I hope you have a rediscovery of God's saving love for each of us. May 2026 bring you peace and hope. And from all of us here at Mercy Home for Boys & Girls, a very happy New Year! May the Lord bless you and your loved ones this year.

Levi was two years old when his mom died. It was only months between her finding out she was sick and when she ultimately succumbed to cancer. Levi didn't remember her, but he knew the pain of being without a mother all too well.

After his mother died, Levi was sent to live with his dad, who was previously not very involved in his life. His dad struggled with addiction and could not take care of Levi. Eventually, Levi ended up with his grandmother. Levi's life became much more stable after he moved in with his grandmother. Though they never had much money, he grew up knowing that he had a safe place to call home and was cared for by someone who loved him.

But when Levi turned 14, his grandmother passed away suddenly from a heart attack. Grief stricken and alone, Levi's entire future felt like it was up in the air. Levi ended up in the care of an aunt who he never met before. She was uninterested in caring for a teenager, and, aside from providing him a room and food to eat, almost completely ignored him.

Levi was overwhelmed with all the life changes and all the emotions he was feeling. He grieved the loss of his grandmother and wondered why there was nobody out there who wanted him. Levi began acting up in school. His grades fell and he was sent to detention nearly every week. His guidance counselor warned him that he was hurting his chances of going to college, but Levi couldn't even think that far in the future. He only wanted to stop hurting.

But there was one thing that Levi loved, and that was basketball. His grades weren't good enough to be on the high school basketball team, but the coach would sometimes let him practice with the team. Soon, the coach felt like the only person Levi could trust. He ended up opening up to him about some of the struggles he was having at home.

Levi's coach knew about Mercy Home from his parish, and he thought that it could be a good place for Levi. He encouraged Levi to bring it up to his aunt. Levi did just that, and his aunt agreed to look more into our Home. After attending an informational session, they both knew it was the best place for Levi.

That's not to say that the transition was easy. Levi struggled to trust our coworkers at first. It was hard to believe that any adult cared about him. But he adjusted, slowly but surely. That's not to say that the transition was easy. Levi struggled to trust our coworkers at first. It was hard to believe that any adult cared about him. But he adjusted, slowly but surely.

The biggest benefit to Levi was the time he spent meeting with his therapist. She helped him start to process his grief over losing his mother and grandmother and come up with healthier ways to express and cope with his emotions.

Levi also worked with a tutor four nights a week. His tutor helped him learn better ways to study and to raise his grades. Eventually, Levi raised his GPA enough that he could join his high school basketball team, which he really enjoys.

Levi's aunt also agreed to attend family therapy with Levi. They are slowly building a better relationship, and she is trying to support Levi more than she did before.

With the support he so desperately needed, Levi was able to stop simply surviving and start thriving. He is now getting good grades, has friends at school, and is exploring his options after he graduates high school.

This is only possible because of the prayer support of Partners in Prayer like you! Thank you for your kindness toward our children.

Prayer for the Children of Mercy Home

Our Lady of Mercy,

We pray that you will guide, protect and bless all boys and girls who this day have a home called Mercy.

May they find the Father's mercy as we offer them our hearts in the name of your son, Jesus Christ.

May they see God's mercy in action through our love, prayers and sacrifices.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Sunday, January 4
THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD – YEAR A

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
See, darkness covers the earth,
and thick clouds cover the peoples;
but upon you the LORD shines,
and over you appears his glory.
Nations shall walk by your light,
and kings by your shining radiance.
Raise your eyes and look about;
they all gather and come to you:
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see,
your heart shall throb and overflow,
for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you,
the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.
Caravans of camels shall fill you,
dromedaries from Midian and Ephah;
all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense,
and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me
by revelation.

It was not made known to people in other generations
as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body,
and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea,
in the days of King Herod,
behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,
"Where is the newborn king of the Jews?"
We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."

When King Herod heard this,
he was greatly troubled,
and all Jerusalem with him.

Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea,
for thus it has been written through the prophet:

*And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
since from you shall come a ruler,
who is to shepherd my people Israel."*

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance.

He sent them to Bethlehem and said,

"Go and search diligently for the child.

When you have found him, bring me word,
that I too may go and do him homage."

After their audience with the king they set out.

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them,

until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star,

and on entering the house

they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod,
they departed for their country by another way.

The Gospel of the Lord.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD – YEAR A

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold,

my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
upon whom I have put my spirit;

he shall bring forth justice to the nations,
not crying out, not shouting,
not making his voice heard in the street.

A bruised reed he shall not break,

and a smoldering wick he shall not quench,
until he establishes justice on the earth;
the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;

I formed you, and set you

as a covenant of the people,
a light for the nations,

to open the eyes of the blind,

to bring out prisoners from confinement,
and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.

Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites

as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all,
what has happened all over Judea,
beginning in Galilee after the baptism
that John preached,
how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth
with the Holy Spirit and power.

He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil,

for God was with him.”

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 3:13-17

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.

John tried to prevent him, saying,

“I need to be baptized by you,

and yet you are coming to me?”
Jesus said to him in reply, “Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.”
Then he allowed him.
After Jesus was baptized,
he came up from the water and behold,
the heavens were opened for him,
and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove
and coming upon him.
And a voice came from the heavens, saying,
“This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year A

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The LORD said to me: You are my servant,
Israel, through whom I show my glory.
Now the LORD has spoken
who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him
and Israel gathered to him;
and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD,
and my God is now my strength!
It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant,
to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and restore the survivors of Israel;
I will make you a light to the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

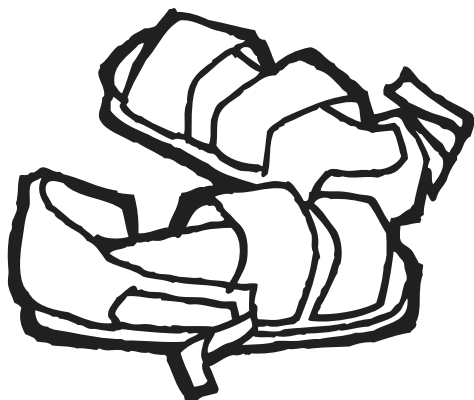

COME, HOLY SPIRIT

SECOND READING

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,
and Sosthenes our brother,
to the church of God that is in Corinth,
to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy,
with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The word of the Lord.

Happy are you
who walk in the Lord's ways

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

He is the one of whom I said,

‘A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’

I did not know him,

but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel.”

John testified further, saying,

“I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him.

I did not know him,

but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me,

‘On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain,
he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’

Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

the
WORD of GOD

Sunday, January 25
THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – YEAR A

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 8:23-9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun
and the land of Naphtali;
but in the end he has glorified the seaward road,
the land west of the Jordan,
the District of the Gentiles.

Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness:
for there is no gloom where but now there was distress.

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom
a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy
and great rejoicing,
as they rejoice before you as at the harvest,
as people make merry when dividing spoils.

For the yoke that burdened them,
the pole on their shoulder,
and the rod of their taskmaster
you have smashed, as on the day of Midian

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

that all of you agree in what you say,
and that there be no divisions among you,
but that you be united in the same mind
and in the same purpose.

For it has been reported to me about you,
my brothers and sisters,
by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among you.

I mean that each of you is saying,
"I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos,"
or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

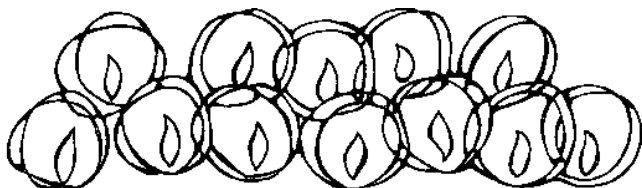

Is Christ divided?

Was Paul crucified for you?

Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel,
and not with the wisdom of human eloquence,
so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 4:12-17

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested,
he withdrew to Galilee.

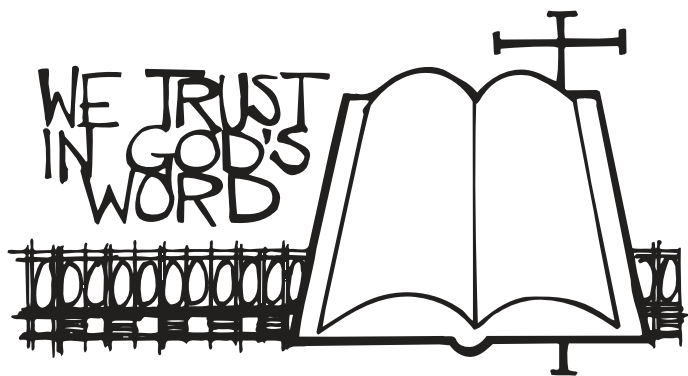

He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,
that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

*Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,
the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light,
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death
light has arisen.*

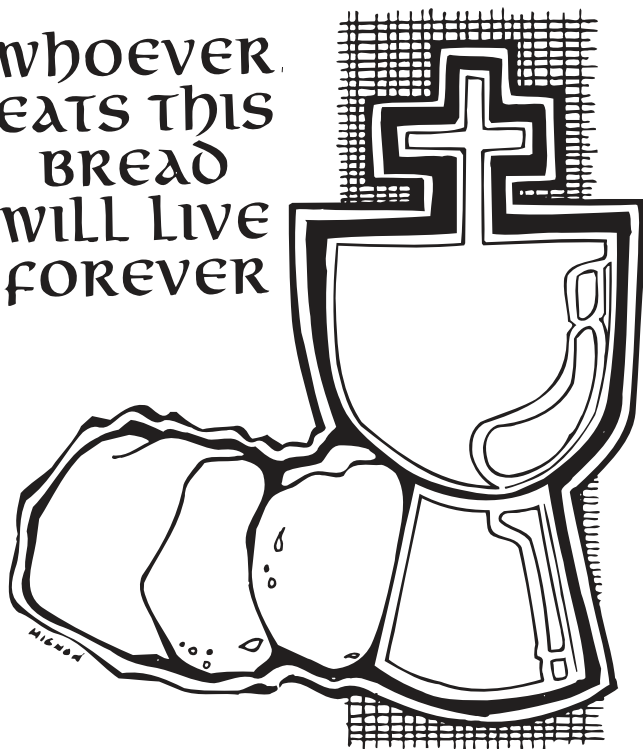

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
